FORT ATKINSON, WI – FCCU announced today a series of internal promotions in preparation of the opening of their Watertown Branch. Devin Truman, Kaycee Grischow, and Jocelyn McGurk have all been promoted to new roles within FCCU.

Devin Truman has been promoted to Watertown Branch Manager. Truman started as a Teller for FCCU shortly after he graduated from UW-Whitewater and has continued to push himself to the next challenge. Most recently, Truman worked as a consumer loan officer at FCCU.

“Devin’s passion for helping people is evident in everything he does. From helping a member buy their first car to volunteering, Devin is constantly looking for opportunities to serve his community. We are excited to watch the Watertown Branch grow with his leadership and care.” Stated Danielle Frawley, Vice-President of Lending at FCCU.

Kaycee Grischow has been promoted to Consumer Loan Officer. Grischow has held several positions within FCCU and has continued to grow since her start five years ago. Most recently, Grischow worked as a mortgage processor at FCCU. In that role, she assisted members and loan officers through the mortgage process. In addition, Grischow has assisted in educating the FCCU team on first-time homebuyer grant programs.

Danielle Frawley, Vice-President of Lending at FCCU commented, “Kaycee is a quick learner and is constantly looking for ways to make our team member’s and our member’s lives easier. When we need team members to step up and learn new tasks, Kaycee is one of the first to volunteer. We are excited to watch Kaycee efficiently and effectively help our members.”

In addition, we are excited to announce that Jocelyn McGurk has accepted the Mortgage Processor role. Jocelyn started as a teller and has continued to build her skills in the member services area. She is efficient, organized, and analytical, which will be an asset to the mortgage team.

“Jocelyn has consistently shown initiative in her performance at FCCU. She is a reliable team member, and will always go above and beyond what is expected of her to ensure that she delivers quality member service to all member-owners. We look forward to watching her dedication and commitment carry on into her new role as a Loan Processor.” Stated Bryan Gatlin, Vice-President of Member Experience at FCCU.

FCCU is currently hiring for positions at their Watertown, Fort Atkinson Main, and Jefferson locations. All job postings are available at fortcommunity.com.
